Item No. 11:

Electronic Industries Association of Japan (EIA-J)

Registrant researched, drafted and prepared a statement on behalf of the EIA-J on developments in the computer and semiconductor industries which was filed with the Subcommittee on Science, Technology and Space of the Senate Commerce Science and Transportation Committee pursuant to the Subcommittee's hearing on same, on November 27, 1978. (See Dissemination Report filed November 27, 1978). Patrick O'Leary covered and reported on Senate Commerce Committee hearing on impact of the semiconductor and computer industries on the economy of the United States held in San Francisco, California on October 30, 1978. Registrant assisted representatives of the Japanese semiconductor industry and participated in the U.S.-Japan Semiconductor Seminar sponsored by the same held in Palo Alto, California on November 14, 1978 and New York City on November 16, 1978, including briefing of scheduled speakers and participation in question and answer sessions. Registrant and his staff researched, prepared and submitted a comparative analysis of the provisions of the International Antidumping Code and U.S. Antidumping Laws and administrative practices of the Treasury Department and International Trade Commission thereunder. Registrant and his staff researched and prepared an analysis of international political, economic and social issues involved in the electronics products trade between the U.S. and Japan.

Registrant and/or his staff furnished reportorial and informational services covering President anti-inflation program, opposition by U.S. electronic industry to Federal Trade Commission proposed rules requiring energy labels for television receivers, Labor Department denial of petition by workers of Sanyo plant to apply for trade adjustment assistance. Reported on and analyzed Public Law No. 95-410, The Customs Procedural Reform and Simplification Act of 1978; proposed amendments by the Treasury Department to the Customs Regulations requiring deposit of estimated dumping duties for merchandise subject to a dumping finding; Senate Finance Committee passage of legislation to extend Treasury Secretary's authority to waive countervailing duties. Covered and reported on Office of the Special Trade Representative hearings on the International Antidumping Code and proposed retaliatory action against Japanese Government quotas on U.S. exports of leather. Reported on status of multilateral trade negotiations and congressional actions regarding same. Reported on Treasury Department actions under the Antidumping Act of 1930 affecting various imports including light bulbs from Hungary, marine radars from the United Kingdom, Titanium Dioxide, steel plate from Spain, and other products. Reported on introduction of various legislation including amendments to Buy American Act, bill to establish Cabinet-level department of international trade and investment, bill to prohibit reduction of textile tariffs in the multilateral trade negotiations and other legislation affecting trade and commerce with the United States. Registrant and/or his staff reported on and analyzed various court rulings and decisions affecting trade including U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia decision in Consumers Union v. Consumer Product Safety Commission; U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit ruling in Pierce & Stevens Corporation v. Consumer Product Safety Commission. Reported on Consumer Safety Commission actions including proposed study of selected ignition sources in television receivers, recommendation for development of a voluntary safety standard for CB base station and television antennas, survey of product manufacturers to determine impact of product safety law on business practices, and otherwise reported on executive departments and agencies, congressional and industry activities bearing on U.S. economic and trade policies affecting the electronics industry. Registrant consulted and provided general suggestions with respect to contemplated public relations programs and supplied readily available background information and data in support of same and responded to New York Times press inquiries.

The Japan Automobile Manufacturers Association (JAMA)

Registrant and/or his staff furnished on a subscription basis reportorial and informational services covering Environmental Protection Agency activities including proposed regulation of diesel emissions and revision in emission test procedures; National Highway Traffic Safety Administration actions relating to investigation of possible safety defects in certain Ford and General Motors vehicles and proposed recall of same, and Administrator Claybrook testimony before the House Subcommittee on Consumer Protection and Finance; General Accounting Office issuance of a report on industry compliance with air quality standards and report questioning Customs Service classification of imported trucks. Covered and reported on congressional activities including Oversight Subcommittee of House Commerce Committee hearing on effects of limited deregulation of unleaded gas prices, Subcommittee on Transportation, Aviation, and Communications of the House Science & Technology Committee hearing on new car research, Energy and Power Subcommittee of the House Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee hearing on fuel economy, and Consumer Subcommittee of the House Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee hearing on bumper standard. Analyzed and reported on automobile industry prospects and legislative and regulatory outlook for 1979. Reported on status of multilateral trade negotiations and prepared analysis of major provisions of the agreement resulting therefrom. Covered and reported on National Commission on Air Quality hearings. Reported on Federal Trade Commission issuance of subpoena to foreign car manufacturers. Registrant and/or his staff gathered information from Congress and government agencies relating to projected motor vehicle sales for 1979, product liability, multilateral trade negotiations package, anti-inflation program, Brookings Institution survey on imports and consumer prices and otherwise reported on actions of NHTSA, EPA, and other executive departments and agencies, congressional and industry activities bearing on U.S. economic and trade policies affecting the automobile industry. Registrant and/or his staff assisted in editing comments filed by JAMA with the Department of Transportation relating to Docket No. 71-3a and Docket No. 70-7 covering fields of direct view.

The Japan Fisheries Association

Registrant and/or his staff furnished reportorial and informational services relating to trade opportunities in international fisheries, latest developments in world fisheries, Pacific Fishery Management Council meeting, appointment of Dr. William Aron to directorship of Marine Mammals, Endangered Species Office, establishment of Fishermen's Contingency Fund program to be administered by the National Marine Fisheries Service. Reported on status of multilateral trade negotiations and congressional actions regarding same. Reported on Guatemalan, Costa Rican and Venezuelan fishery exports to the United States, Mexican shrimp strike, California roe herring fishery, and otherwise reported on congressional, executive departments and agencies and industry activities bearing on the fisheries trade.

Government of Japan:

(a) Japan Trade Center: Registrant and/or his staff reported on Consumer Product Safety Commission activities including Staff recommendation to grant 3M petition on bicycle reflectivity, issuance of revised bicycle safety standards, potential suit against Commission on release of data previously enjoined from disclosure, and issuance of advisory letter on preemption of state bicycle regulations. Reported on Treasury Department actions including finding of dumping against bicycle tire imports from South Korea and negative determination on imports of bicycle tires from Taiwan under the Countervailing Duty statute; International Trade Commission finding of injury against Korean bicycle tire imports; report of the National Bureau of Standards on bicycle safety. Reported on status of multilateral trade negotiations and congressional activities bearing on same. Registrant and/or his staff provided informational services including responding to telephone requests for information and data and interpretation of provisions of various United States trade laws affecting importation into and marketing in the United States of bicycles, and otherwise reported on executive departments and agencies, congressional and industry activities bearing on economic policy and import trade.

(b) U.S.-Japan Trade Council: Registrant orally furnished information and data with respect to status of antidumping proceedings involving television receivers from Japan and associated pending litigations. Registrant orally furnished information and judgments in connection with Council reports relating to trade in the automotive industry. In addition, Registrant discussed a number of developments in U.S.-Japan trade with Robert Angel, Director.

(c) Embassy of Japan: Registrant and/or his staff furnished legal and informational services covering congressional activities including Trade Subcommittee Task Force of the House Ways and Means Committee report on United States-Japan Trade, House passage of countervailing duty waiver extension, Senate Finance Committee recommendations for legislation implementing Antidumping Code. Reported on and analyzed developments in the multilateral trade negotiations including congressional activities and hearings held relating thereto. Covered and reported on activities of the Office of the Special Trade Representative including hearings held on Antidumping Code and Section 301 Committee proposal on possible retaliatory action against certain products from Japan. Prepared and furnished supplemental analyses of various provisions of the Customs Procedural Reform and Simplification Act of 1978, analyzed Treasury Department proposed amendments to Customs Regulations covering deposit of estimated antidumping duties, reported on recent determinations under the Antidumping Act of 1930 and relevant developments under the same statute including Treasury Department and/or International Trade Commission actions covering various imports including nails from Canada, motorcycles from Japan, nylon yarn from France, steel wire from Japan, Portland hydraulic cement from Canada and other imported products. Reported on and analyzed presidential actions including proposed anti-inflation program and unions opposition thereto, program to support declining dollar, veto of amendment to the Bank Holding Company Act exempting textile and apparel items from possible tariff reductions agreed to in multilateral trade negotiations, and Executive Order revising the General System of Preferences List. Registrant and/or his staff also reported on miscellaneous developments including Consumer Product Safety Commission activities in 1978, results of 1978 Congressional elections and impact of same on future trade legislation, legislation regulating foreign investment in the United States, U.S. industry dissatisfaction with U.S. enforcement of trade laws, and court ruling threatening U.S. subsidiaries of Japanese firms' hiring practices. Registrant acted as interpreter at various meetings and undertook research, gathering data and analyzing major components of United States exports. Registrant and/or his staff also advised Embassy on tax matters, and otherwise reported on executive departments and agencies, congressional and industry activities bearing on U.S. economic and trade policies.

Item No. 13

on March 13, 1979, Registrant was interviewed by telephone by Mr. Jonathan Beatty of TIME magazine at the request of the latter, in connection with an article Mr. Beatty was writing for that magazine on electronics trade.

Registrant did not and does not believe that this activity benefited any of his foreign principals in any quantifiable terms, either directly or indirectly. However, since this activity may be perceived to have benefited any one or more of his foreign principals, it is being reported herein.
